HIPAA Notice of Privacy Practices

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

This Notice of Privacy Practices describes how we may use and disclose your protected health information (PHI) to carry out treatment, payment or health care operations (TPO) and for other purposes that are permitted or required by law. It also describes your rights to access and control your PHI. "PHI" is information about you, including demographic information, that may identify you and that relates to your past, present or future physical or mental health or condition and related health care services.

Uses and Disclosures of PHI

Your PHI may be used and disclosed by your provider, our office staff and others outside of our office that are involved in your care and treatment for the purpose of providing health care services to you, to pay your health care bills, to support the operation of the provider's practice and any other use required by law.

Treatment

We will use and disclose your PHI to provide, coordinate or manage your health care and any related services. This includes the coordination or management of your health care with a third party. For example, we would disclose your PHI as necessary to a home health agency that provides care to you. Your PHI may be provided to a physician to whom you have been referred to to ensure that the physician has the necessary information to diagnose or treat you.

Payment

Your PHI will be used as needed to obtain payment from your health care services. For example, obtaining approval for a hospital stay may require that your relevant PHI be disclosed to the health plan to obtain approval for the hospital admission.

Healthcare Operations

We may use or disclose as needed, your PHI in order to support the business activities of your provider's practice. These activities include, but are not limited to, quality assessment activities, employee review activities, training of graduate students, licensing and conducting or arranging for other business activities. For example, we may disclose your PHI to medical school students that see patients at our office, In addition, we may use a sign-in sheet at the registration desk where you will be asked to sign your name and indicate your provider. We may also call you by name in the waiting room when your provider is ready to see you. We may use or disclose your PHI as necessary to contact you to remind you of your appointment. We may use or disclose your PHI in the following situations without your authorization. These situations include:

- As required by law
- Public health issues as required by law
- Communicable diseases
- Health oversight
  - Abuse or neglect,
- Food and Drug Administration requirements
- Legal proceedings

  - Under the law we must make disclosures to you and when required by the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services to investigate or determine our compliance with the requirements of Section 164.500.

- Funeral directors
- Organ donation

Other permitted and required uses and disclosures will be made only with your consent, authorization or opportunity to object unless required by law.

You may revoke this authorization at any time in writing except to the extent that your provider or the providers's practice has taken an action in reliance on the use or disclosure indicated in the authorization.

Your Rights

Following is a statement of your rights with respect to your PHI.

You have the right to inspect and copy your PHI

Under federal law, however, you may not inspect or copy the following records: psychotherapy notes, information compiled in reasonable anticipation of, or use in a civil criminal or administrative action of proceeding and PHI that is subject to law that prohibits access to PHI.

You have the right to request a restriction of your PHI

This means you may ask us not to use or disclose any part of your PHI for the purposes of treatment, payment or healthcare operations. You may also request that any part of your PHI not be disclosed to family members or friends who may be involved in your care or for notification purposes as described in the Notice of Privacy Practices. Your request must state the specific restriction requested and to whom you want the restriction to apply.

Your provider is not required to agree to a restriction that you may request, if your provider believes it is in your best interest to permit use and disclosure of your PHI, your PHI will not be restricted. You then have the right to use another healthcare professional.

You have the right to request to receive confidential communications for us by alternative means or at an alternative location. You have the right to obtain a copy of this notice from us upon request, even if you agreed to accept this notice alternatively i.e. electronically.

You may have the right to have your provider amend your PHI

If we deny your request for amendment, you have the right to file a statement of disagreement with us and we may prepare a rebuttal to your statement and will provide you with a copy of any such rebuttal.

You have the right to receive an accounting of certain disclosures we have made of your PHI

We reserve the right to change the terms of this notice and will inform you by mail of any changes. You then have the right to object or withdraw as provided in this notice.

Complaints

You may complain to us or the Secretary of Health and Human Services if you believe your privacy rights have been violated by us. You may file a complaint with us by notifying our privacy contact of your complaint. We will not retaliate against you for filing a complaint.
